CONDITIONS AT MORRIS & CO. PLANT EXPLAIN THEIR BIG PROFITS

Emmet Flood Calls Place Where Big Meat Company's Employees Live "Most Degrading Sights in the City" —Firm Cleaned Up $1,916,996 in 1913, While Some of Their Workers Plugged Along on $6.80 Per Week, Says Flood.

At the same time that Morris & Co., meat packers, announce that they made a profit of $1,916,996 last year organized labor declares that special attention should be called to the low wages, lack of steady work, bad housing and mean living conditions of the employes of Morris & Co.

"If a visitor came to Chicago and asked me to show him the most degrading sights in this city one of the places I would take him would be out on Gross avenue or Whisky Row, where the low-paid workers of Morris & Co. live," said Emmet Flood, organizer for the American Federation of Labor, who is interested in unionizing the packing house employes. "I have been out in the houses that are supposed to be the homes of the working people out of whom Morris & Co. cleaned up nearly $2,000,000 of swag last year. I can take you to rows of houses there on Whisky Row where conditions are curious.

"In the basement live the single
